

Product description

Electromechanical CLIQ key deposit lock to be used with a key tube. Key tube is installed to the wall according to instructions and key is inserted in the tube.

Key deposit lock is operated with an electronic CLIQ key.

Overview of Advantages

- Strong burglary protection
- Efficient solution for fire departments, telecom companies and other operators to securely manage root keys close to important locking points.

Technical data

Available key systems	ABLOY PROTEC2 CLIQ
Available plating options	Satin chrome (HCr)
Weight	0.325kg
Authorized keys	1800 authorized key groups and programming keys together, theoretical maximum 65535 keys in each group
Blacklist	Maximum of 3000 denied keys can be programmed to the cylinder
Audit trail	Last 2000 events
Foreign audit trail	Last 20 events for keys from other systems
Time zone support	A time zone is set for the masterkey system, and an offset can be specified for cylinders located in different time zones
Usage temperature	-40 ..+85C
Marking	Product is marked in the front facia with position information and/or customer specific marking
Maintenance
• Lubrication	Lubricate once a year with Abloy lock oil (Rivolta)

We reserve the right to make alterations to the products described in this leaflet.